Law School Forum

STAT

1. Action Requested: Accept or decline an invitation to address a meeting of the Harvard Law School Forum sometime during the 1983-1984 academic year.

STAT 2. Background: Vice President of the Harvard Law School Forum, has invited you to address a meeting of the Harvard Law School Forum. This is the thirty-sixth year of the Forum which is a nonpartisan, nonprofit organization run entirely by students. Programs generally consist of a presentation by the guest speaker followed by an informal question-and-answer session with the audience. The format is flexible, however, and the choice of topics is yours. The audience consists of members of the Harvard community and is also open to the general public.

The mission of the Forum is to promote the discussion of current issues by bringing to the Harvard Law School distinguished individuals in government, the arts, education, law, and industry. Previous speakers have been former Presidents Jimmy Carter and John F. Kennedy, Barry Goldwater, Henry Kissinger, and John Kenneth Galbraith, to name a few. Attached is the Forum's brochure with additional information. Newspaper clippings from The New York Times covering recent debates are also attached and clearly show that the media would be present.

3. Recommendation: None; last month you declined a similar invitation to address the Student Legal Forum, University of Virginia Law School. Indicate your preference and have Public Affairs make an appropriate response.
